ABBA EBAN SPEAKS AT SYNAGOGUE OCTOBER 5

September Is A Month of Holidays

Throughout the month of Elul, the sound of the Shofar is heard in the Synagogue signalling the approach of the High Holy Day season.

In preparation for the High Holy Days with its theme of repentance and renewal, there occurs the service of Selihot which this year takes place on Saturday, September 3 at 10 P.M. Prior to the service, at 8:15, the congregation is invited to a coffee hour which is then followed by a lecture given by Rabbi Wechsler on "Radical Repentance: The Thought of Rabbi Yosef Yozel Hurwitz of Navaredok." A choral meditation, sung by the Synagogue Choir, takes place just before the start of the service itself. The haunting musical motifs of the Selihot Service, which are rooted in tradition, set the tone of the approaching High Holy Days. The liturgy will be sung by Cantor David Lefkowitz, accompanied by the Synagogue Choir under the direction of our organist, Neil Robinson.

The schedule of services for the High Holy Days can be found on page 2; the schedule for Junior High Holy Day services can be found on page 4.

Babysitting for very young children and for children ages 4-7 is available. Please refer to the information contained in the SCHOOL NEWS column on page 4 for details concerning this program.

On Monday and Tuesday, September 19 and 20, Parents Association and the High School Department invite the congregation to a Sukkah-Decorating Party from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. ALL ARE WELCOME to participate in the mitzvah of decorating the Sukkah!

Make your reservations now to eat in the Sukkah. See page 5 for details. Reservations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis and will be acknowledged by mail.

His Excellency Abba Eban

AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR FELLOW CONGREGANTS

Dear Friends,

You will have received by now a letter from us launching the 1983 Yom Kippur Appeal at Park Avenue Synagogue. The funds to be raised by this appeal are critically needed in order to keep the cost of Synagogue membership and Religious School education within the reach of all who seek it. With your much needed help, we can maintain a balanced budget and continue to provide the many and varied programs — religious, educational, cultural and social — for which our synagogue is noted.

Please respond generously and promptly so that we can minimize the length of our Appeal from the pulpit on Yom Kippur itself.

We wish you and your family a happy and healthy New Year. L'shanah Tova!

Abba Eban will speak to the Congregation on Wednesday, October 5 at 8 P.M. to begin the fall semester of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies. He will be delivering the Sherr Lecture, made possible by Mr. and Mrs. Abraham I. Sherr and Mrs. Glayce Sherr Gluckman, on the subject: "The Meaning of Jewish History".

Mr. Eban has just completed a multi-part series on the history of the Jewish people for PBS, which will be aired later this year. His lecture at Park Avenue Synagogue will be the first public discussion of this landmark series. Ambassador Eban will discuss the broad scope of Jewish history as he has seen it from his unique vantage point as one of the shapers of modern Israel as well as reflect upon its significance for us, as modern Jews.

Known as an orator without peer, Mr. Eban's gift for speaking and debating is legendary. Diplomat, scholar, political leader, Mr. Eban has fought throughout his public career for peace in the Middle East and for basic human rights. In Mideast politics, he has made his mark as a brilliant theorist and an articulate and skillful negotiator.

At the reception following his lecture, members of the congregation will have the opportunity to meet Mr. Eban as well as the members of the faculty of the Sherr Institute. There will be an opportunity, as well, to also discuss at that time the content of courses with the faculty and to register for courses for this year. The Sherr Institute curriculum in adult education at Park Avenue Synagogue encompasses Hebrew, Bible, Talmud, Jewish History and Practice.

Admission to the lecture is free and seating will be on a first come, first served basis. Because an overflow audience is expected, congregants are encouraged to come early for the best seating.

A Sudden Transition

Most of us need time. Time to become adjusted to new situations, new people, new places. When we return from a trip abroad, we suffer jet lag for a few days until we are attuned to the new time, the new place, the new surroundings. This is true not only of our physical selves. Emotionally and spiritually it is difficult to shift gears, to change moods, to absorb new ideas and feelings quickly.

These words are written on a hazy August day to the accompaniment of the staccato sounds of the ubiquitous cicadas. The hot humid air seems to stifle all important activity and one is gripped by a state of inertia that threatens to last endlessly. Any thought of crisp autumn days with their stepped-up pace seems far off indeed. But this year we are afforded no such luxury. We shall have to shift gears suddenly, swiftly. We do so because Rosh Hashanah comes upon us quickly, early, and we shall shift in a hurry from idling to high gear. And what a high gear it will be! From the leisurely summer pace which is almost like a slow-motion film we speed up to the quick ascent of the peak of the Jewish year. There we shall be, congregations of Jews the world over, standing together in our synagogues, immersed in our personal prayers for a good new year, yet banded together with our fellow Jews in the single greatest demonstration of faith in the Jewish religious calendar.

Shall we be jolted by this sudden transition? Shall we suffer jet lag as we speedily travel to the heights on this journey? I think not. We Jews are a people not usually given to solitude. We need each other and we need our religious calendar to give our lives form and order. We revel in each other's presence and we feel as though we are returning to the bosom of our family on the High Holy Days. This can never come too soon.

My family joins me in wishing you and yours a joyous, good, and happy year.

— Judah Nadich

Three Congregants Honored At Simhat Torah Services

It is a tradition at Park Avenue Synagogue to honor three congregants for their special service to the congregation and the Jewish community during Services marking Simhat Torah, which this year is celebrated on Friday, September 30.

Martin J. Milston has been named Hatan Torah in recognition of his outstanding service to the synagogue; Anita S. Gluck has been named Kalah Mafteret in recognition of her conspicuous service to the synagogue; and Nathaniel Usdan has been named Hatan Bereshit in recognition of his outstanding service to the synagogue and to the Jewish community.

Services begin at 9:15 A.M. A reception and buffet kiddush will take place on the Lower Level following the service in honor of our honorees.

Martin J. Milston

At the Annual Meeting of the Congregation last May, Rabbi Nadich inducted Martin J. Milston into his second term as President of the Congregation. Prior to assuming this leadership role, Marty served first on the Advisory Council and then on the Finance Committee, before becoming the Treasurer of the Congregation.

Born, raised and educated in the suburbs of New Jersey, he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School with a B.S. in Economics. He received his LL.B. from New York Law School and went on to take graduate courses in Income Tax law at N.Y.U.'s Graduate Law School. Marty is a CPA and a partner in the accounting firm of J.H. Cohn & Company.

He is a member of the AICPA and the New York Society of CPA's; the treasurer and a member of the Board of Directors of 60 East End Avenue Associates and a member of the Urban Volunteer Consulting Group. For six years he served as a trustee and treasurer of the Day School.

Marty and his wife, Mendelle, have been members of Park Avenue Synagogue for 13 years. They have two children, Roberta and Arthur, who attended the Religious School and celebrated their Bat and Bar Mitzvah with the congregation.

Martin J. Milston

Anita S. Gluck

Are there any members of the congregation who do not know that Anita Gluck served as Chairperson of the Park Avenue Synagogue Journal Committee these past two years, producing the most successful journals since the inception of the idea six years ago?

Anita, with her husband Stanley, joined Park Avenue Synagogue a short 7 years ago, but the impact of this dynamic couple has been such that it is hard to imagine a time when they were not actively involved in the life of the congregation.

Anita was instrumental in creating the Park Avenue Synagogue weekly morning minyan and is one of its ardent "regulars". She was also one of two co-chairpersons of the Women's Evening Group auction, an evening so successful that it is now an annual event.

Anita, a travel consultant by profession, found the time to be involved in the Jewish volunteer world. She has served on the Boards of the Bialik Group of Hadassah, the Jacob H. Schiff Center and the Akiba Hebrew Academy.

She has been honored twice before: once by UJA and the Jacob H. Schiff Center in recognition of her service to the Jewish community; and again, by the SAR Academy, in recognition of her devoted and dedicated interest in Jewish education.

Anita is the mother of two daughters: Freema Gluck Nagler, an attorney and vice president and general counsel of Murjani International and Sheera Gluck Perlman, an optician.

Anita S. Gluck

Nathaniel Usdan

Nathaniel Usdan is a benefactor of Park Avenue Synagogue and a pillar of the Jewish community.

He and his family have been members of the congregation for more than 30 years. His three children, Adam, Esme and John, attended the Religious School and Adam and John celebrated their Bar Mitzvah with the congregation and then went on to graduate from our High School program.

Mr. Usdan is a valued member of the Board of Trustees of Park Avenue Synagogue and his service to the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies is noteworthy.

He is a fellow of Brandeis University and a Founder of the Albert Einstein School of Medicine. He is also a Founder of the Usdan Camp for the Creative and Performing Arts, which

Celebrate Sukkot With Your Own Lulav and Etrog

There are not many occasions during the Jewish religious year that mandate that we Jews own something in order to celebrate a holiday. Sukkot is one of these occasions when, according to Jewish Law, it is a commandment to "take to yourself" — to own — a Lulav and Etrog.

It is true that we can use the Lulav and Etrog we find at the Synagogue when we come to services, but there is something particularly special in coming in direct contact with these two symbols associated with the celebration of this beautiful festival; to be able to carry your own Lulav and Etrog during the hoshanot of the Service.

To obtain your own Lulav and Etrog you can do one of two things: you can go down to the Lower East Side just before the holiday and purchase your own set OR you can call the Synagogue Office — 369-2600 — and order one purchased for you.

Our Assistant Cantor Mark Kula will be more than happy to answer any questions you might have about your purchase, its meaning and its use.

Lower Level New Look Delights the Eye and Ear

Members and friends of Park Avenue Synagogue are due for a delightful surprise when they view the Lemberg Auditorium early this fall. What they will be seeing is the redesign and redecoration of the area which encompasses the new Hall of Worship, the Sisterhood Lounge and the Lemberg Auditorium.

Working together, Professor James Jarrett, the architect of the new building, the Officers and Trustees of the Synagogue and Ben Beckman of Ben Beckman and Associates have arrived at a plan which reflects the award winning features of the new building as well as responds to the needs of the congregation.

Notice what a difference the new lighting makes in the "feel" of the room and how the sculptured acoustical panelling on the walls provides not only an architectural echo of the facade of the new building, but also serves to absorb some of the unwelcome sound that made the noise level of the Lemberg Auditorium unpleasant. Resurfacing the entire area in a subdued, patterned carpet adds to the unity of the space and provides more ease of maintenance to the area. The domed light fixture serves as a dramatic focal point in the Lemberg Auditorium, producing a skylight effect which provides the optical illusion of raising the ceiling.

All in all, a beautiful effect to space in constant use for a myriad of functions, year round.

Holiday Time Is Sharing Time

We like to think of our congregation as an extended family, sharing life's joys and sorrows together. In a city the size of New York, if we at Park Avenue Synagogue can provide the means to accomplish this, then we will have come far in realizing our goal of oneness with each other.

Do you know that there are members of the congregation who would be delighted to have fellow congregants join them in Breaking-The-Fast after Services on Yom Kippur?

The Holiday Sharing Committee will serve as liaison to bring you together. Won't you call either Toby Bremer at 289-2195, or Sue Heller at 534-1558, or Barbara Stevenson at 861-1699, or Nancy Treiger at 734-3894 and express your preference: to be a host or to be an invitee?

Sharing always makes any event more pleasurable, don't you think?

Louise Rose To Speak At Women's Evening Group

Louise Rose will discuss "Jews and the College Quota" at the opening meeting of the Women's Evening Group on Monday, September 26 at 8 P.M.

Ms. Rose is a novelist and short story writer and currently teaches at Columbia University and St. Joseph's College. Her article, which appeared in Commentary Magazine entitled "The Secret Life of Sarah Lawrence" will serve as a reference for her talk.

Those interested in reading this article before the meeting may contact Ruth Rothseid, 861-7534, for a copy.

An open invitation is extended to all women of the congregation and to their women friends to attend this and all other meetings throughout the year of the Women's Evening Group.

Rabbi Nadich Takes Part In Community Study Program At Y

Rabbi Nadich will participate in Community Study: The Book of Jonah at the 92nd St. Y, on Monday, September 12 at 8 P.M.

Community Study is an innovative, thought-provoking program in which three rabbis teach to each other a central text of the Jewish tradition. Each teacher brings his individual insights and perspectives to bear on the text. The result is an evening of study and sharing. Participating with Rabbi Nadich will be Rabbi Gunter Hirschberg of Congregation Rodeph Sholom (Reform) and Rabbi Haskel Lookstein of Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun (Orthodox). Together these rabbis will study with the audience "The Book of Jonah" which is recited in the synagogue on Yom Kippur.

Tickets are $6 each and can be obtained from the Y Box Office, Lexington Avenue at 92nd St., New York City.

For further information on this, and other programs, please call 427-6000, ext. 162.

Revitalized Parents Association Welcomes Parents Back!

September brings school bells and at Park Avenue Synagogue the beginning of school means the beginning of activities in Parents Association.

Parents Association is more than a liaison between school and home. It attempts, in many diverse ways, to enrich the educational, cultural and social experience of not only the children in the school, but also their families as well.

Every parent should therefore plan to attend the Welcome Back meeting on Wednesday, September 14 at 8 P.M. Over wine and cheese, parents will meet one another, learn more about the educational goals of the school and the proposed activities of Parents Association for the coming year.

Join in the fun of decorating the Sukkah on Monday and Tuesday, September 19 and 20, between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M., and to eat Supper in the Sukkah.

Also, it is not too soon to save the date of Tuesday, October 4, when Nancy Samalin will lead a discussion on "Discipline: A Loving and Practical Approach". Ms. Samalin is the popular leader of a workshop in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies on Parents and Children and is a disciple of Dr. Alice Ginott.

We Take Pride In:

Barry J. Alperin, who was elected to the Board of Overseers of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

Arthur H. Bienenstock, who was elected secretary of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Peter I. Feinberg, who was elected vice chairman of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Theological Seminary and who, with Mr. Bienenstock, will serve as the Seminary's representatives on the Board of the University of Judaism in Los Angeles, the Seminary's West Coast affiliate.

Ralph Lauren, who received the career achievement award at the presentation of the Cutty Sark Men's Fashion Awards.

Mrs. Arleen Rifkind, who was named Professor of Pharmacology at Cornell University Medical College. She also has been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Jewish Theological Seminary Library.

Robert L. Rifkind, who was elected to the Board of Directors of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Judge Simon H. Rifkind, who was reelected an honorary Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Arnold L. Sabin and Robert E. Rifkind were cited by the Seminary, as charter members of the Chancellor's Council.

Mrs. Ramie Silbert, who was elected one of a presidium of three, to lead the Women's Division of the American Technion Society.

Annual Report of the Chairman of the Congregation

Welcome to the one hundred and first annual congregational meeting of the membership of Park Avenue Synagogue. I would like to share with you briefly some of the highlights of this past year as well as to tell you about some of our plans for next year.

Sabbath Morning Services: We continue to enjoy heavy attendance at Services on Saturday mornings, celebrating a Bar/Bat Mitzvah virtually every week and on some weeks celebrating two. We thank our Rabbis and Cantor, our Organist and the Choir, our Chief Usher and his committee of ushers for the beauty and dignity of our services.

Membership: Synagogue membership, under the leadership of William Sherman, the Chairman of the Membership Committee, continues to reach new heights, with a total now of 1100 families. Last December, a champagne reception was held to welcome our 133 new family members into the synagogue family. We thank Margot Steinberg, Nancy Treiger and Miriam Wallerstein for undertaking the responsibility of chairing the event.

Schools: 440 students were registered in the three departments of the Mazer School of Religious Studies. We acknowledge, with thanks, the educational commitment of Edith Paul, Principal of the Early Childhood Center, Rahel Bloch, Principal of the Primary and Elementary School, and Peter Geffen, Principal of the High School, who together continue to strive for the excellence in education which has made our school the best in New York City. On Shavuot, twenty-one students were graduated from the High School, a record high. We know that next year will be even better. The projected enrollment for the coming school year (1983-84) is 460 students.

In addition, I wish to thank Eleanor Frommer and A. Stanley Gluck, co-chairmen of the School Board, for their leadership of this all-important committee. The Goals Committee, an ad hoc committee of the School Board, has been studying, with the assistance of the principals and teachers, each division in depth during this past year. Many of their excellent recommendations have been implemented. The work of this committee will continue in the coming year.

Adult Education: 390 men and women studied, this past year, in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies. The Institute is under the direction of our able Assistant Rabbi, Dr. Harlan J. Wechsler. We thank him for the time and effort expended to make the Institute relevant.

Events: Approximately 200 people participated in the beautiful Tisha B'Av Service held in the Sanctuary July 28.

High Holiday Services were once again an inspiration, led by Rabbi Judah Nadich, Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler, Cantor David Lefkowitz and Assistant Cantor Mark Kula. The Ushers Committee, under the leadership of Harold Glasser, did an outstanding job in helping to maintain the dignity of the services.

The Sukkah was beautifully decorated under the direction of Judy Katz and the meals in the Sukkah were served under the supervision of Shiela Miller, Barbara Sassoon and Margot Steinberg.

Our honorees on Simhat Torah were Harold Glasser, Hatan Torah, in appreciation of his 25 years of service to the congregation as Chief Usher; Annette Sherman, Kalah Mafteret, for her service to the Synagogue for many years; and Arnold Sabin, Hatan Bereshit, for his service to the Synagogue and to the Jewish community.

A program of five Friday evening Shabbat Dinners was inaugurated this year under the leadership of Linda and Mel Matlins. In all, over 500 people attended the dinners, and they were such a smash success that we will certainly continue them next year. The dinners also had the effect of significantly increasing attendance at Friday evening services.

We had two marvellous liturgical music services performed by Cantor David Lefkowitz, with Neil Robinson at the organ, and Abraham Kaplan conducting the Synagogue Concert Choir.

Our daily minyan, held at 5:45 p.m., operated without faltering, under the able leadership of Phil Swartz. Our morning minyan, which had been held the previous year once a month, was expanded to once a week, under the leadership of Jeffrey Lowin. We invite all of you to attend on Thursday mornings at 7:30 a.m.

The highlight of the year had to be our Centennial Celebration. Phyllis Siegel and her committee oversaw the flawless unfolding of the celebration of the 100th birthday of the congregation. The celebration began on Sunday, October 17, when the children of the Religious School planted a tree in front of the Synagogue and watched as a mezzuzah, designed and crafted by Moshe Zabari, which had been commissioned by the Theodore Goldstein family, was affixed to the door of the new building.

The celebration continued during the weekend of November 12, beginning Friday evening with the 39th Annual Sabbath Eve Liturgical Music Service. The service was presented by Cantor David Lefkowitz and the Synagogue Concert Choir, under the direction of Abraham Kaplan, with Neil Robinson at the organ. Our Saturday morning service that weekend featured a sermon by Rabbi Nadich entitled "One Hundred Years". The celebration concluded on Sunday afternoon, when we heard outstanding addresses by Marvin Kalb, NBC News Chief Diplomatic Correspondent, Dr. Gerson D.

Cohen, Chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and Rabbi Judah Nadich.

In March, the Ramie and Gerald Silbert Playground, located on the roof of the new building, was dedicated at a Friday night Service.

The Arms of the Synagogue had an outstanding year of programs and services. Briefly, some of the highlights are:

- Sisterhood, under the leadership of Hanna Lyttle, have operated the Gift Shop, prepared the weekly congregational kiddushim after services and held a series of programs with noted speakers, which included Jeane Kirkpatrick, United States Permanent Representative to the United Nations, (to which 1000 people came) and Naphtalie Levi, Consul General of Israel in New York. In addition, the financial support which they have rendered to the Synagogue has been invaluable, an example being the funding of the renovation of the Ladies Lounge on the Lower Level.
- The Mr. and Mrs. Club, under the guidance of Miriam Brown, enjoyed a year of diverse programming which included speakers such as Raconteur Morley Pape and Professor Murray Lichtenstein; and their annual theatrical, which, as always was a tremendous hit. They also rendered significant financial support to the Synagogue and donated this lectern, which was desperately needed. We take note of the lively cultural and social activity year of the Young Couples League, under the leadership of Gail Brown and Dr. John Jacoby.
- The Women's Evening Group, co-chaired by Lite Sabin and Shira Nadich Levin, had as speakers Carol Bellamy and Paul Cowen. (The Women's Evening Group joined Sisterhood in sponsoring the program which featured Paul Cowen.) Once again, their annual Auction and Supper was a great financial and social success.
- The Parents Association, led by Barbara Sassoon, sponsored the meals in the Sukkah, held a Book Fair, Passover Wine and Candy Sale, financed the "Child-Minding" service on Saturday mornings and added tangible and intangible enrichments to our school program.
- The Men's Club, led by Herb Frommer, sponsored community interest programs, such as the Hanukkah party for the elderly members of Project Ezra, interesting meetings with speakers such as Surrogate Marie Lambert and Jerry Goodman, Chairman of the National Council on Soviet Jewry, and has scheduled a Night of the Shear June 8.
- Our Singles Groups are growing and have instituted programs of interest to their memberships.

To be concluded in next issue.

Exhibition of Paintings On View On Lower Level

An exhibition of twenty paintings representing a modern interpretation of Genesis by the contemporary artist Lionel S. Reiss is now on view in the lobby area of the Lower Level.

Mr. Reiss is an American painter, etcher and watercolorist. It is his hope that he, with the aid of friends, will be able to make possible the permanent acquisition of these works by Park Avenue Synagogue. He hopes to realize this goal at a Tea, planned by Mr. and Mrs. Reiss for their friends and members and friends of the synagogue, to be held in the exhibition area on Wednesday, October 12.

Well known for his travels in Europe, North Africa and the Middle East in connection with his anthropological studies of Jewish "types", Mr. Reiss published his first book, "My Models Were Jews" in 1938, which had an introduction by Dr. Franz Boas, a distinguished anthropologist. In 1951 his second book, "New Lights and Old Shadows" was published, with text by Dr. Cecil Roth. A third volume, "A World At Twilight", which included a large body of work done in Eastern Europe before the Holocaust, was published in 1971, with texts by Isaac Bashevis Singer and Dr. Milton W. Agus.

Mr. Reiss has also won distinction for his paintings of the American scene, many of which have been exhibited in major museums throughout the United States. His work is found in private collections as well as in public collections in the United States and in Israel.

He has written critical essays on art and has illustrated several volumes, among them "The Golden Treasury of Jewish Literature" and the "Complete Works of Chaim Nachman Bialik".

For more information on the paintings on view, please contact the Synagogue Office.
